Location: Kerala's Children Museum & Piratolino

In Kerala's children's museum, we playfully experience the different habitats of animals in the open large books. A talking stone tells us its story and the walk-in fox and badger burrow invites us to discover it. We also explore the various themed boxes and can look forward to discovering great treasures from the forest. In the afternoon, we can look forward to the Piratolino play world: climbing labyrinth, trampolines, wave slides, a go-kart track, a climbing volcano and lots of games....what fun!
